

Goldkenn introduces Jack Daniel's Tennessee Fire chocolate bar

The Liquor Bar is available individually or in a gift pack with three Swiss chocolate liquor bars developed in partnership with Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey

Building on the success of the 100-gram Jack Daniel's® Tennessee Whiskey Liquor Bar and Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey, Goldkenn is presenting the Jack Daniel's Tennessee Fire™ Liquor Bar, a sweet blend of Swiss milk chocolate and Jack Daniel's Tennessee Fire, a whiskey with a note of cinnamon liquor.

The Liquor Bar is available individually or in a gift pack with three Swiss chocolate liquor bars developed in partnership with Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey.

“Our unique chocolate recipes contain only carefully selected ingredients, including Rainforest Alliance-certified cocoa, and use cacao butter as a substitute for palm oil, meaning that Goldkenn chocolate is authentic, natural, and respectful of the environment,” reads the press release.

This Liquor Bar is the latest addition to the liqueur range of the Swiss chocolatier Goldkenn, which collaborates with other prestigious spirits brands including Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey, Rémy Martin, Cointreau, Captain Morgan, The Botanist, among others.
