

Marcolin presents new Zegna eyewear capsule for Asian market

The eyewear collection will be available at Sanya International Duty Free Shopping Complex in Hainan

Eyewear company Marcolin has unveiled a new Zegna Eyewear capsule collection crafted for the Asian market, which will be available through a travel retail channel exclusive to the China Duty Free Group (CDFG) in Hainan through June 2023.

According to the company, "As an international ambassador of Italian style and elegance, the Zegna Eyewear collection — currently sold through China Duty Free Group at the Sanya International Duty Free Shopping Complex in Haitang Bay, Hainan — designs the future of beauty with easy-to-wear styles. Frames are crafted with classic silhouettes, embellished with exclusive details and made contemporary via their sophisticated designs."

The sunglasses in the collection are:

EZ0225-D: "Easy-to-wear square sunglasses. The metal core and acetate frame perfectly blend in an elegant style suitable for any situation."

EZ0226-D: "Metal pilot sunglasses with front defined by an elegant acetate rim. The sleek, light frame has metal and acetate temples that were designed to give the style a dynamic look and exclusive comfort."

EZ0227-D: "Metal pilot sunglasses with a sleek, simple silhouette. The sunglasses with thin temples are distinguished by the new laser-embossed Zegna logo and engraved grooves that recall the path shared by Zegna Eyewear."

EZ0228-D: "Light, elegant metal navigator frame. These timeless sunglasses have an ultra-thin temple design embellished with the new Zegna logo."
