

Time Products expands international travel team for Sekonda and Accurist brands

Cleona Henderson, newly appointed Key Account Manager at Time Products (UK), set to drive growth for Sekonda and Accurist brands in global travel retail

Time Products (UK) has announced the addition of Cleona Henderson to its international travel team as Key Account Manager. Henderson joined the company on September 9, 2024 to focus on growing the Sekonda and Accurist watch brands' business with key global travel retail accounts.

1

Henderson brings experience in managing key accounts stock control and product development from her seven-year tenure at Kurate International. Her role at Time Products (UK) will concentrate on expanding business within travel retail across duty-free and export channels.

Sekonda's Monica collection: Exemplifying the brand's appeal to travelers with its blend of style and value in the duty free market

"I am excited to be joining the Time Products (UK) travel team and look forward to growing our key accounts across the dynamic duty-free channels. Our Sekonda and Accurist brands are already well known among travelers looking for our fantastic products and excellent price points," said Cleona.

Time Products (UK) owns the Sekonda Accurist and Limit watch brands.

For further information and comments please contact Row Holland (row@essencompr.com) or Alison Farrington (alison@essencompr.com).