

Caudalie expands its Vegan Collagen 1 anti-aging skincare collection

This season, Caudalie is introducing three references to its No. 1 anti-aging line in France, specially designed to visibly lift and plump the skin

With its Vegan Collagen 1, Caudalie gives the skin the best of collagens for exceptional anti-aging results.

This season, the brand has introduced three references to its No. 1 anti-aging line in France, specially designed to visibly lift and plump the skin.

Available from September 2024 in travel retail shops operated by Lagardère Travel Retail, Avolta, Eurotrade München and Kappé Schipol, the SKUs boost collagen fibre synthesis and reinforce skin firmness. See a summary below:

1. Lightweight Firming Cashmere Cream (40-ml): Suitable for all skin types, this cream leaves a “velvety finish” and fresh complexion. Its smoothing soft-focus formula is infused with fine pearly particles, revealing a fresh complexion
2. Instant Firming Serum (30-ml): To correct wrinkles and redefine facial contours, this serum is highly concentrated in resveratrol is now available in a refillable format. Its innovative refill is made exclusively of aluminium, which is 95% recycled and can be recycled again and again

3. Firming Eye Gel Cream (15-ml): Formulated with quinoa extract, smoothing biopolymers and lifting peptides, this cream helps to fight signs of fatigue and reduce loss of firmness in the skin. The metal applicator is said to provide an immediate congestion-relief effect for visibly “younger-looking eyes”
