

Bottega SpA customizes terrace at The Grand Hotel Savoia in Cortina

Celebrating the ritual of the aperitif and allowing guests to take in the sights and scenes of the Alps, the elegant setting features a premium assortment of signature cocktails and sparkling wines

Bottega SpA is proud to announce that it has customized the large terrace of the The Grand Hotel Savoia in Cortina d'Ampezzo. The home away from home, which is part of the exclusive Radisson

Collection hotel selection, is a 5-star facility of great charm, made unique by the breathtaking panoramic views over the Ampezzo Dolomites.

In this elegant and refined setting, Bottega celebrates the ritual of the aperitif (or lunch), allowing guests to take in the sights and scenes of the Alps.

The logo of the Treviso-based winery and distillery characterizes the counter, where bartenders prepare signature cocktails and serve glasses of Prosecco Gold and other sparkling wines from the Bottega collection. The premium assortment includes Gin Bacur, white and barrique grappas, Limoncino and cream-based liqueurs to satisfy the taste of every consumer.

The presence on the terrace at the Grand Hotel Savoia, one month after the inauguration of the Bottega space at the Bokan hotel in London, enriches its number of exclusive and collaborative locations around the world.
