Over the next five years, IWSR forecasts that global travel retail volume will grow by 2%, led by cane spirits (6.7%), Japanese whisky (6.4%), and gin (6.2%).

By region, spirits volume is expected to grow 3.6% in Africa and the Middle East, 2.4% in Asia Pacific, 2.3% in the Americas, and 1.2% in Europe (all figures compound annual growth rate 2018-2023).

The retail value of spirits in duty free is estimated to reach almost US$10.4 billion by 2023.

"Spirits growth in travel retail softened slightly in 2018, compared with the year before, but the positive news here for duty free operators and spirits suppliers is that the channel continues to perform well," said Sandra Newman, Travel Retail Research Director at IWSR Drinks Market Analysis.

Johnnie Walker Scotch whisky, which for more than 30 years has been the top-selling brand in global travel retail, grew by almost 8% last year.

Rounding out the rest of the top five by volume in 2018 were Jack Daniel's, Chivas, Absolut, and Hennessy.

"Also interesting to note is the continued success of Aperol and Jägermeister in the bitters/aperitifs category. These brands posted the second- and third-highest increases in the channel behind Johnnie Walker in terms of absolute volume growth last year," noted Newman.
