

Penfolds releases scores for California Collection

The scores and reviews of Penfolds' inaugural California Collection are reflective of its commitment to making exceptional wines across two hemispheres, underpinned by Penfolds House Style

Following its Penfolds California wine tasting held earlier this month, the company is proud to share the first scores and reviews of Penfolds' inaugural California Collection. The collection of scores has been published by some of the most respected wine critics from around the world.

The wines of the collection are a testament to Penfolds' incredible winemaking team - both in Australia and the US - and the reviews are reflective of its uncompromising commitment to making exceptional wines across two hemispheres, underpinned by Penfolds House Style.

The team is thrilled to share that Penfolds 2018 Quantum Bin 98 Cabernet Sauvignon, the flagship of the California Collection, has already been awarded a perfect 100 point score by
