

Changi voted world's best airport in 2019 - Skytrax

In addition to winning World's Best Airport 2019, Changi Airport also scooped the award for Best Airport Leisure Amenities

Changi Airport Singapore has been voted the World's Best Airport 2019 by international air travelers for the seventh consecutive year, Skytrax has announced.

This is the first time in the history of the awards that an airport has won this title for seven consecutive years. Changi Airport was also the repeat winner of the award for the Best Airport Leisure Amenities.

The awards were held at the Passenger Terminal EXPO in London on March 27.

London Heathrow Airport scooped World's Best Airport Shopping, while Hong Kong International Airport won the World's Best Airport Dining accolade.

The World's Top 10 Airports 2019 are (in order): Singapore Changi Airport, Tokyo Haneda International Airport, Seoul Incheon International Airport, Doha Hamad International Airport, Hong Kong International Airport, Chubu Centrair International Airport, Munich Airport, London Heathrow Airport, Tokyo Narita International Airport, and Zurich Airport.

Lee Seow Hiang, Chief Executive Officer of Changi Airport Group said: "Changi Airport is honored to again be named World's Best Airport. This achievement was made possible by the strong support from our airport partners. At Changi, we are fortunate to have a large community of immensely dedicated and passionate airport workers who strive to deliver the best experiences to our passengers every single day. We thank our passengers for their continued support. Their vote of confidence motivates us in our pursuit of service excellence and pushes us to continue redefining what an airport can be.

“As we launch our newest icon Jewel Changi Airport next month (April 2019), we look forward to sharing with passengers and airport visitors the unique Changi Experience in a new way, with an expanded range of world-class facilities, offerings and experiences.”

Edward Plaisted, CEO, Skytrax, said: “To be voted the World’s Best Airport for the seventh consecutive year is a truly fabulous achievement for Changi Airport, and this award continues to underline the airport’s popularity with international air travelers. Changi Airport is very focused on continually improving the customer’s airport experience and innovating with new product and service features. The opening of the Jewel Changi Airport in April 2019 looks set to add another unique dimension to the experience for Changi Airport customers.”
