

Qatar Airways' Premium Lounge in Paris re-opens

The lounge spans over 1,000 square meters and has views of Paris and the Eiffel Tower Qatar Airways has re-opened its luxurious Premium Lounge at Paris-Charles de Gaulle Airport (CDG), available for Premium passengers and eligible Oneworld Alliance partners.

The Premium Lounge features all of the facilities and qualities of the airline's premium product, including both The Brasserie and The Global Deli, prayer rooms, a business center, shower facilities, Wi-Fi and zoned seating for more than 200 guests.

"This milestone illustrates our focus on continuous product enhancements. The re-opening of the Qatar Airways Premium Lounge at Paris-Charles de Gaulle Airport marks our fifth global lounge within our growing network. This further demonstrates our commitment to providing unparalleled services to our customers, especially in France," said His Excellency Akbar Al Baker, Chief Executive of Qatar Airways Group.

At more than 1,000 square meters, the Qatar Airways Premium Lounge at Paris-Charles de Gaulle offers Qatar Airways First and Business Class passengers a sophisticated, modern and spacious environment in which to relax and commence their five star journey experience.

Catering to exceptional premium culinary standards, the lounge is equipped with a full kitchen for freshly-prepared à la carte orders, in addition to an existing buffet spread, offering an international menu from across the globe.

Qatar Airways Paris Premium Lounge launched its operations in 2017 to serve the growing capacity of passengers travelling with the airline from Charles de Gaulle Airport. Today, Qatar Airways operates 18 weekly flights to Paris, offering passengers with the ultimate connectivity to Hamad International Airport.

At the recent 2022 World Airline Awards, managed by the international air transport rating organization Skytrax, Qatar Airways was announced (for the seventh time) as the "Airline of the Year."
