

Inés Sisto leaves ASUTIL

Anyone who has had dealings with ASUTIL during the past 15 years has encountered Inés Sisto. She helped organize the ASUTIL events, resolved any issues with ease and was always available to help.

On May 14th, Secretary General José Luis Donagaray announced that she is no longer a member of ASUTIL staff. “Inés joined in 2006 and was an important part of the continuous growth of the Association from the secretary, the development of the ASUTIL Conferences, as well as those held with other associations such as the Encuentro Border Shops and the SUMMITS,” he stated, adding a message: “We are grateful for your services throughout all these years and the best of luck in her future endeavors.”

Inés will undoubtedly be missed by all in the travel retail community. Donagaray has confirmed that ASUTIL will continue to provide its services “in the same way. We will explore other ways of collaboration in the future, with the aim of a constant and sustained improvement of them for our associates.”
