

Summit of the Americas 2021: the agenda of its Knowledge Hub

With Summit of the Americas - A Virtual Experience quickly approaching, the completed agenda of the digital event's Knowledge Hub has been released. Hosted by IAADFS and ASUTIL, in partnership with filtr and The Moodie Davitt Report, the event will take place Monday, April 5 - Friday, April 9, 2021. The team is looking forward to offering attendees an interactive and immersive experience, allowing those in the duty free and travel retail industry to learn and connect.

As noted online, Summit of the Americas 2021 will host a diverse series of conferences, panel discussions and case studies from thought leaders, innovators and disruptors throughout the week, with the aim of providing unique ideas and insights on current trends and challenges in the market.

Please visit the following link to view the agenda and a countdown to the event:

<https://virtualamericassummit.com/knowledge/>

If it's still on your to do list, register now - 44 days to go!