

Visitor registration opens for TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference

Visitor registration for this year's TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference is now available and will stay open until April 4.

Those wanting to secure their pass for the event can do so at this link.

Key players from all corners of duty free and travel retail who have already confirmed their attendance include Hermès, Shiseido, Kering Eyewear, SK-II Group, La Prairie, Lacoste, Swarovski, JTI, Beam Suntory and others.

TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference promises a carefully crafted programme of conference sessions and networking planned throughout the week. For the first time, the exhibition will open on Monday afternoon. The return of TFWA i.lab Asia, on Level 1 of the Marina Bay Sands, will give delegates the chance to take a deep dive into a world of cutting-edge concepts that will elevate and enhance the customer experience of the future.

The event will start with a Welcome Cocktail at the Flower Dome in Gardens by the Bay. The networking will continue on Monday and Tuesday at the TFWA Asia Pacific Lounge, held in partnership with Qatar Duty Free on level 4 of the Marina Bay Sands and will culminate with a finale at the Singapore Social Club in Sentosa on Wednesday. The full programme details are available here.

TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference is officially hosted by the Changi Airport Group, and China Duty Free Group is a diamond sponsor of the event. Other high-profile sponsors include: the city of Singapore; the Singapore Exhibition & Convention Bureau; Avolta; Mondelēz International and Qatar Duty Free. The TFWA Conference is also supported by Nestlé, Lindt and Skross. Products in the TFWA Asia Pacific Lounge are offered by Duty Free Global, Liviko-Crafter's, Heineken, Santa Margherita, Mondelēz International, Wonderful Pistachios and Perfetti Van Melle.

Erik Juul-Mortensen, TFWA President, said, "This year's TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference is certainly shaping up to be another unmissable event. Interest is already high, and an encouraging number of brands and retailers have firmed up their plans to join us in Singapore. TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference is the regional summit of the duty free and travel retail community - and we're certainly looking forward to bringing the industry together in Asia once again."

