

WiTR welcomes Nina Semprecht to its Steering Committee

Nina Semprecht, of Gebr. Heinemann, is the newest member of the WiTR Steering Committee

Women in Travel Retail (WiTR) - the industry's women's forum for those working exclusively in travel retail - has just announced that Nina Semprecht, Head of Corporate Communications at Gebr. Heinemann, will join its Steering Committee as representative for Northern Europe.

Semprecht joined Gebr. Heinemann in March 2020 following a career in the financial sector. She is responsible for internal and external communications, brand management, corporate sponsoring and event management for the travel retail giant.

The following professionals make up the WiTR steering committee: Sarah Branquinho (Chair), Gerry Munday (Vice Chair), with Aude Bourdier, Myriem Chalabi, Sinead El-Sibai, Amanda Felix, Lucy Hillyard, Rowena Holland, Mona Lebrasseur, Erin Lillis, Chandra Mahtani, Lois Pasternak, Nina Semprecht, and Jo Willey.

Stay tuned for coming announcements of an exciting program of WiTR webinars, along with details of the charity nomination process for the coming year.
