

Emerald House Associates celebrates 25 years

Guests join members of the EHA team to toast 25 years of success

Display industry experts and airport activation specialists Emerald House Associates (EHA) is celebrating 25 years of business.

To mark the milestone anniversary EHA hosted a champagne reception for specially selected guests at London's In and Out Naval and Military private members club.

The setting in St James's Square saw guests from client companies including Coty, Chanel and Selfridges in attendance, alongside multiple members of the EHA team.

At the event, EHA announced the launch of its new sister company Okey Dokey, which will specialize in bespoke design services for clients.

EHA has established its place in the luxury display industry working alongside some of the most famous and prestigious brands in the world. Bespoke retail solutions experts EHA, whose specialist services include 3D design, large format printing and acrylic fabrication, create and supply installations at all the UK's major airports.

Since it was founded more than two decades ago, EHA has experienced significant growth and built an impressive, extensive portfolio of prestigious clients which includes Burberry, Dolce & Gabbana, Gucci, Hugo Boss, Harrods, Jack Daniels, Jameson, Pernod Ricard, Tiffany & Co and Whyte & Mackay.

Emerald McNamara, Business Development Manager at Emerald House Associates, said, "Our 25th anniversary celebration was an opportunity to thank all our clients, suppliers and team members. Twenty-five years of business success is a momentous milestone for EHA and we wanted to commemorate the occasion in style.

As the business continues to experience phenomenal growth, we were delighted to announce the launch of design service Okey Dokey. It is the latest exciting development for the business, and we look forward to another 25 years of success."
