

Saudi Cabinet approves duty free shops at all ports of entry

As reported by the Saudi Press Agency, at the beginning of September, The Saudi Cabinet approved the establishment of duty free markets at air, sea and land ports.

According to Arab News, the decision to allow duty free markets permits sales to passengers arriving and departing from the Kingdom. King Salman chaired the weekly Cabinet meeting at which the decision was announced.