

TFWA World Exhibition 2019 kicks off in spectacular style

Hundreds of travel retail industry executives turned out for TFWA World Exhibition's annual Opening Cocktail party on Sunday evening at a smart new venue.

Hosted by the organizers, TFWA, headed by President Alain Maingreud, the event saw the great and the good of the industry mingle at Port Canto with old friends, colleagues and customers from across the travel retail globe.

Plenty of superyachts lined the venue, making for a fabulous view out to Cannes harbour.

The firework finale was as spectacular as ever, courtesy of the City of Cannes.

Now onto business - have a good week!
