

Top 25 retailers confirm attendance at TFWA Asia-Pacific Exhibition & Conference

Brands exhibiting for the first time include Chanel, Ermenegildo Zegna and Diageo

A high number of exhibitors and retailers from around the world have confirmed their attendance at the 2023 TFWA Asia-Pacific Exhibition & Conference in Singapore.

"Operating within a diverse range of duty free and travel retail channels, organizations both large and small have already signed up, with larger delegations, for the industry's must-attend event in Singapore," according to a press release.

In addition to the top 25 retailers who have confirmed their attendance, other organizations participating include: Delhi Duty Free, Zhuhai Duty Free Enterprises, Duty Free Americas, Centrair Passenger Service Co Ltd, Kansai Airport Retail & Services, and Guangzhou Skymall.

Landlords Malaysia Airport Group, Incheon Airport, Delhi International Airport, GMR Hyderabad International Airport, Narita International Airport, Fraport Ag/Frankfurt Airport Corporates, Changi Airport Group, MSC Cruises and airlines China Airlines, Eva Airways, AirAsia, and KrisShop, have also confirmed their attendance.

Leading brands exhibiting include: LVMH Beauty, Kering Eyewear, La Prairie, Moët Hennessy, Travel Blue, and Mars, while L'Oréal, Puig and Interparfums have reserved larger floor space compared to previous years. Chanel, Ermenegildo Zegna and Diageo are exhibiting for the first time. The full exhibitor list can be found here.

"The growing list of leading retailers from all over the world confirming their presence at the event this year in Singapore is impressive," said Erik Juul-Mortensen, TFWA President. "Bringing the world's duty free and travel retail professionals together again in Asia is crucial to drive our industry's future. It is gratifying to see familiar names of those who have been long-term supporters of TFWA events, and we are also excited to welcome many first-time exhibitors and visitors."

Pre-registration for TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference in Singapore, is open until April 5. Those wishing to attend can register online.