In partnership with Diageo and HBO to celebrate the eighth and final season of the critically-acclaimed television series Game of Thrones (GoT), DFS has announced an exclusive promotion for a limited-edition collection of the Single Malt Scotch Whiskies.

From 13-16 Apr 2019, travellers will receive 10% off when they spend at least S$150 (US$111) on the Game of Single Malts collection on the iShopChangi.com website. Travelers can make purchases on iShopChangi.com 12 hours to 30 days before their flight.

The collection, which is also available at DFS and Changi Airport, features eight different Scotch whiskies that represents the various iconic Houses of Westeros for the GoT fans.

Much like the land of Westeros, each of Diageo's diverse range of distilleries in Scotland has their own unique characteristics, with its own distinctive taste. Ranging in cost from S$73.50 (US$54) to S$138 (US$102) for 0.7L bottles, the collection includes whiskies from Dalwhinnie (House Stark), Singleton of Glendullan (House Tully), Cardhu (House Targaryen), Lagavulin (House Lannister), Oban (The Night's Watch), Talisker (House Greenjoy), Royal Lochnagar (House Baratheon) and Clynelish (House Tyrell) distilleries.

In addition, the promotion also includes the limited-edition White Walker by Johnnie Walker (S$68 / 1L) which was specially created by whisky specialist George Harper, alongside the small team of expert blenders at Johnnie Walker.
