DFS's annual exhibition, Masters of Wines and Spirits, is back for its ninth edition at Singapore's Changi Airport

DFS will be holding its ninth edition of its Masters of Wines and Spirits (MOWS) exhibition in March at Singapore's Changi Airport Terminal 3 Departure Transit hall. The annual exhibition will feature an exclusive collection of 59 of the world's rarest and finest wines, spirits and champagnes from over 50 renowned brands and houses.

DFS Masters of Wines and Spirits is part of the retailer's DFS Masters Series, which is a signature programme of exhibitions around the world. According to DFS' press release, the Masters Series aims to showcase "the pinnacle of DFS' leadership and innovation in curating and creating exceptional experiences across its five pillars of luxury." The five pillars are wines and spirits, beauty and fragrances, watches and jewelry, fashion and accessories and food and gifts.

This year's collection includes the Johnnie Walker Master's Ruby Reserve, a 40-year-old whisky celebrating Master Blender Dr. Jim Beveridge's 40th year, also known as ruby anniversary, at Johnnie Walker. Another highlight is The Macallan Exceptional Single Cask, which was distilled in 1950 and released in 2018.
