

DFS unveils exclusive Moncler capsule collection

DFS and Moncler are launching a collection of high-performance skiwear from the Moncler Grenoble Collection

DFS has joined hands with Italian outerwear brand Moncler to launch a range of high-performance skiwear from the Moncler Grenoble Collection. The collection will be available at select DFS downtown T Gallerias and airport stores worldwide from November 1.

In a press release, DFS said the 11-piece collection Moncler Grenoble Collection represents “the pinnacle of high-performance skiwear with ultra-technical features.” The range is also suitable for all types of weather condition at the slopes and everyday alpine life.

According to DFS, the collection uses the smart fabric, GORE-TEX – a waterproof and windproof material which allows ultra-breathability, as well as protection from extreme weather. The range is also designed with fluffy padding and body sculpting properties to ensure optimal warmth while staying lightweight.

The collection features colourful, sleek and refined silhouettes
