

Kansai Airport to welcome Tory Burch boutique in December 2019

Travelers at Kansai International Airport can look forward to shopping at the new Tory Burch boutique when it opens at Kansai Airport's Terminal 1

Osaka's Kansai International Airport (KIX) will welcome American lifestyle brand Tory Burch to its Terminal 1 international post-security area on December 1, 2019.

In a press release, the airport said the new boutique will feature a wide assortment of the brand's iconic shoes, handbags and fashion accessories. The opening is part of Kansai Airports' goal to "continue to create a unique and exceptional experience for all airport guests." Lotte Duty Free Kansai Co. is the operator of the new Tory Burch store.

Tory Burch currently has boutiques at over 250 locations across North America, Europe, the Middle East, Latin America, Asia and Australia. Its products are sold at more than 3,000 department and specialty stores worldwide and on its official website.
