

London Supply celebrates 80 years in business

London Supply President Teddy Taratuty released a special message and the company released a video celebrating its 80th Anniversary on February 4, 2022.

Taratuty stated: “On a day like today, 80 years ago, Don José ‘Pepe’ Taratuty ventured to take the first steps to build the enterprise that would later become the business group we all know. With the legacy of his clear vision, his resolute determination and the distinctive values of a family company, we continued to grow and shape that which Pepe once dared to dream.

“Today, 80 years of history later, we are more confident than ever that a company’s most important capital is the ability to dream. On behalf of all of us who are part of this big family, thank you for continuing to help us reach our dreams.”

Below, please watch the video created in celebration of this great anniversary.