

Qatar Duty Free sponsors two 2023 tennis tournaments

The tennis tournaments will be held at the Khalifa International Tennis and Squash Complex in Doha

Qatar Duty Free (QDF) is once again sponsoring the Qatar Women's Total Open 2023 and the Qatar Men's ExxonMobil Open 2023 tennis tournaments, taking place in Doha from February 13 to 18 and February 20 to 25 respectively.

The WTA and ATP Tournaments will feature top-tier tennis players including World No. 1 Iga Świątek with nine of the world's top ten confirmed.

Qatar Duty Free is hosting a booth with a VR Tennis game for spectators where tennis fanatics can play in a replica of the real-world central court staged at the Khalifa International Tennis & Squash Complex. Participants with the highest scores will win daily prizes.

Vice President of Qatar Duty Free, Thabet Musleh, said in a press release, "Sports is an important part of the identity of Qatar Duty Free. We have been sponsoring the ATP Tennis tournaments for many years, and it is always a pleasure to continue this partnership. Last year, Qatar Duty Free played an integral role during the FIFA World Cup Tournament. This year, we are excited to continue our commitment to supporting sports in Qatar by participating in the ATP tournaments. We wish all the players in both the Qatar Total Open & Qatar ExxonMobil Open tournaments an enjoyable competition, and look forward to taking part in this world-class championship."

By sponsoring the tennis tournaments, QDF confirms its commitment to support international world class sporting events in Qatar. In, 2022, Qatar Duty Free was named the Official Retail Partner for the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022, showcasing one of the largest collections of FIFA Official World Cup merchandise, souvenirs, and collectibles. Later this year, QDF will continue its long-standing partnership with the Qatar Golf Association by sponsoring the 26th Edition of the Annual 2023 Commercial Bank Qatar Masters.
