

The Shilla Duty Free partners with Clarins to launch vegan-friendly skincare line

My Clarins' vegan-friendly skincare line includes products such as cleansing milk, hydrating cream and a beauty mist, among many others

The Shilla Duty Free has partnered with French luxury skincare brand Clarins to launch a new vegan-friendly skincare line called "My Clarins".

According to The Shilla Duty Free's press release, My Clarins' products harnesses the power of natural ingredients to help customers achieve youthful-looking skin.

My Clarins' skincare line includes nine products that target the five dimensions of healthy skin: radiant and luminous skin, glowing complexion, hydrated, smooth and plump skin.

Using natural ingredients such as the extracts of fruits, plants, flowers and seeds, My Clarins' products' formula features a unique blend of coconut water and Alpenrose extract to help maintain youthful-looking skin. To further protect the impact pollution has on the skin, My Clarins' Anti-Pollution Plant-Based Complex is also added into the formulas.

All products in the range are cruelty-free with eco-friendly packaging made from recycled material which are sourced from sustainably managed forest.

"We are delighted to partner with The Shilla Duty Free, a digitally advanced and millennial driven partner, to bring My Clarins to young, discerning travelers. My Clarins is a significant milestone, further reinforcing the presence of Clarins in the uncharted territory of clean beauty while widening our extensive beauty repertoire," said Alexandre Callens, Travel Retail Asia Pacific General Manager of Clarins.

“As young consumers become increasingly sophisticated and discerning in their skincare regime, our vegan-friendly and dermatologist-tested skincare solution is set to be a huge step forward in terms of sustainability and consumer-centricity. Priding ourselves in offering something for every woman at every stage of her life, My Clarins perfectly exemplifies Clarins’ values in respecting the environment, while selecting only the best nature has to offer.”

Details of the nine products are listed below.
